7

Župlnova House
The masonry house with a cellar built in 1887 boasts beautifully carved front entrance doors.

8

St Ulrich Square, Cultural Centre, Smlednik Costumes, St Ulrich Chapel, and Village Garden
The square is the spiritual and cultural centre of the village, with the culture building with a mural depicting the Smlednik costume, the St Ulrich chapel, and a village garden mirroring communal gardens from the past.

9

St Ulrich Church, the Parsonage, and the Cemetery
The Neo-Romanesque church of St Ulrich was built in 1849 and is facing the parsonage. Behind the church is a cemetery with the burial chapel of the Lazarini family, the tomb of teacher Martin Krek, and a First World War memorial.

10

Water Trough "Pater"
The "pater" water trough is a remnant of the old village water supply system.

11

Calvary
The Calvary presents fourteen chapels from the Baroque (Rococo) period, with three crosses at the top of the hill.

12

Smlednik Castle ("Old Castle")
The original castle was a fortified tower with a moat. It represents the clearest embodiment of the design and the development of a medieval castle in central Slovenia.

Smlednik and Valburga

A walk through Smlednik and Valburga

What are some of the particularities of Smlednik? Every house has its own hill and its own trench ("graben"), and the village has as many intersections as London, a metropolis.

Do you know Šentomprga? Take a walk through it, helping yourself with this leaflet and a map.

6. "Blood Monument"

1

"Simon Jenko" Elementary School
The school was named after the poet Simon Jenko who attended it in the years from 1842 to 1844. Another one of its pupils was priest and patriot Jakob Aljaž who attended it from 1853 to 1855.

2

Peasant Rebellion Monument
The authors of the sculptures, built in 2015 to commemorate the rebellious past, are locals Helena and Miro Rismondo, Bogdan Jerič, and Bojan Kranjc.

3

Blejček Chapel
Late Baroque chapel boasting a statue of St Joseph with a lily flower in his hand.

4

Mežnar House and National Liberation Struggle (NOB) Monument
The Mežnar House is a monument of cultural heritage since the original architecture of the house was kept. Across the street from the house is a National Liberation Struggle monument with names of those fallen from 1941 to 1945.

5

Lazarini Mansion, St Walpurga Church
The Baroque mansion hosts a chapel, a painted ceremonial hall, and a series of rooms with murals. St Walpurga Church in Valburga (Šentomprga) is a Baroque church with an abundantly carved pulpit.

6

"Blood Monument"
This Late Baroque chapel stands on the spot where the princely scaffold used to be.
